Tara Farm Celebrates 40 Years It's Been A Glorious Journey by Suzy Lucine

When looking back on her 40 years of raising and showing Morgan horses at Tara Farm in Raleigh, NC, owner Fran Pugh shakes her head, smiles and asks, “Where did all those years go so quickly?”

“My love and appreciation for Morgan horses from Day 1 until right now is still the same,” she continued. “I have had such a wonderful life with my Morgans. I am so glad that I was introduced to Morgans and they have continued to play such an important role in my life.

During this year’s 40th anniversary celebration of Tara Farm, Fran has enjoyed looking at old photos and reminiscing. “It’s been fun to look at the way we did things over the years, and remember the good times and the wonderful horses” she said.

Over the years, all of her horses were ‘favorites’ to her. She had fond memories of Empyrean Apollo, who...
